

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A dual chamber nursing bottle includes a first chamber, a second chamber, a closure which defines the second chamber, and a valve member which communicates between the first and second chambers to control the flow of fluid from the first chamber to the second chamber and then feed an infant using the nursing nipple which is mounted on the first chamber.

c:\mydocs\abstract.ap213